

All workstations including Active Directory server is on the domain controller

Users log on to their machines through ADS which is on the DC*

Active Directory server, users, password control, group policies..... Are to be configured here

